Burglars who looted a Granite City Humane Department pickup truck in the 2500 block of Dewey Avenue Saturday night or Sunday are being warned that some of the substances stolen are dangerous and could be fatal.

It was discovered at 9:20 a.m. Sunday that the truck vent window had been forced open and a small metal box containing a syringe and five bottles of tranquilizers were taken.

Two bottles of gun shells also were taken, including one type which explodes easily and could explode if dropped, officials warned.

The officials also advised that the tranquilizers include some which could be fatal to humans.

64-year resident is slain

Mrs. Pearl Elizabeth Giffin, 78, an active and well-known Granite City resident for 64 years, was slain in her apartment early Friday morning. She resided at 2107 Kirkpatrick Homes.

Steve Strubberg, 19, of 4510 Kirkpatrick Homes, was arrested later Friday by police who have charged him with murder and burglary. Two juveniles, ages 14 and 15, also were taken into custody for possible juvenile court action.

Strubberg's bond was set at $400,000 on the murder charge and $5,000 on the burglary charge.

Mrs. Giffin was believed to have died from a massive trauma to her head, possibly caused by a club. Police have recovered what they believe was the murder weapon.

She was found in bed and may have been asleep when struck. An autopsy held Friday afternoon showed Mrs. Giffin had sustained a blow behind her left ear hard enough to fracture her skull. An inquest into the cause of death is to be scheduled.

Mrs. Giffin's daughter, Mrs. Kenneth (Opal) Sipes of Madison, called police at 8:40 a.m. Friday and said she was unable to contact her mother either by telephone or by knocking on the door.

A front screen door had been cut and a window in the front door had been removed.

Police entered the home and found Mrs. Giffin without signs of life in her bed. There was blood on her pillow and a wound to her head. She wore night attire.

She was pronounced dead there by Madison County Deputy Coroner Randall Irwin. The time of death could not be

Concern in area

The slaying Friday of Mrs. Pearl Giffin has prompted a call by Kirkpatrick Homes residents for increased protection.

Mrs. Christie Evans, 4901 Kirkpatrick, said she plans to begin circulating a petition to provide around-the-clock protection against burglaries, assaults and other crimes, which she said "are on the increase."

She said the petition she plans to circulate will ask the city to establish a security guard system within the housing area. "We need help. Older people out here are scared. There are crimes everyday and we don't have the protection we need," Mrs. Evans said. She has been a resident at Kirkpatrick for the past two years.

Armed robbery

An armed robber took about $208 from employees of the Parkside Food Shop, 3202 Maryville Road, at 8 p.m. Friday.

A man entered, reached over the counter and pointed a small silver steel revolver at a clerk, saying, "This is a holdup and it's no joke."

He grabbed a man employee and pushed him behind the counter with the woman clerk.

He then told the woman to get all the money out of the cash register.

After taking the bills, he ordered her to lift the change compartment and give him currency under the compartment.

The victims then were ordered to lie on the floor while the robber reached over the counter and took the change.

Inflation, controls complicate health care

During special meetings last week in Washington with Illinois congressmen, 60 hospital representatives from across the state emphasized the continuing efforts of hospitals to combat inflation and what they see as the damaging effect of federal control mechanisms on Illinois' health system.

The hospital delegation, comprised of chief executive officers, administrative staff members and hospital board members representing 36 Illinois institutions, was in the nation's capital to discuss with congressmen the problems hospitals are facing.

Paul E. Racziewicz, vice president, and Jack Grieves, assistant vice president, represented St. Elizabeth Hospital, Granite City.

The Illinois Hospital Association, which represents nearly 300 hospitals across the state, sponsored the trip in conjunction with the American Hospital Association annual winter meeting.

The delegates emphasized the following major areas of concern:

(1) Administrative rulemaking.

"Illinois hospitals are deeply concerned over administrative rulemaking procedures. In the health field alone, there is a multiplicity of federal agencies and departments which issue regulations directly impacting the operation of hospitals," an IHA spokesman said.

"Many times these rules and regulations developed by agencies do not reflect, and go far beyond, the intent of Congress in passing the accompanying legislation.

"IHA feels that the federal government should examine both the process and consequences of such rulemaking. Through control of rulemaking, the federal government can help deter the rising cost of health care."

(2) President Ford's health revenue sharing plan.

"On Jan. 19 in his State of the Union address, President Ford announced a plan to permit consolidation of 16 federal health programs into one $10 billion block grant to the states."

"The plan would encompass health programs in these categories: Medicaid; Public Health Service preventive and community health programs; health planning; construction and resources development programs covered under Public Law 93-64; and the development disabilities program.

"Under the block grant system it is clear that states would have fewer federal dollars than they could expect if the programs are separately funded."

"It is estimated that federal health aid would be cut by about $800 million."

"The inclusion of Medicaid would impact especially hard on Illinois because of large numbers of recipients and higher levels of benefits."

"The new proposal allows the state to establish its priorities and distribute funds — a concept IHA has supported."

"But the Association is concerned that Illinois' excellent programs — such as its nationally known Trauma Network (Emergency Medical Services), its community health services programs, maternal and child health programs, and strides in health planning — will be impaired."

(3) Medicare reimbursement and hospital costs.

"The Ford administration also proposes changes in the Medicare program which could severely effect the financial viability of hospitals and could place an even greater burden on patients and health insurance premiums."

"Among the major changes is the imposition of a seven per cent limitation on Medicare reimbursement for operational

Legislators praised

Michael J. Howlett, a Democratic candidate for governor of Illinois, last night called on 400 persons assembled at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville to work for and return Sam W. Wolf of Granite City and Joe E. Lucco of Edwardsville to the state House of Representatives.

Wolf and Lucco are currently serving as representatives of the 56th Legislative District. Wolf was appointed to the office in October 1975 and Lucco is seeking a second term.

"I need them in the house to help me unite the Democratic party in this state which has been divided by our present governor," Secretary of State Howlett declared.

"Sam Wolf is an experienced and successful businessman; a leader in his community and a leader in civic affairs.

"Sam Wolf has also been a leader in the Democratic party from precinct committee since 1966 to being elected a member of the Democratic National Committee in 1975. In commenting on Rep. Lucco, the guest speaker said, "Joe is restoring trust and confidence in government and our political process. He has established himself as a spokesman and a champion for local government and Southern Illinois."

Stressing his theme of unity, Howlett emphasized, "As governor, I intend to provide leadership that will make our 12 (Continued on Page 17)

Schools close for Lincoln's birthday; banks, stores open

Quad-City area public and parochial schools will close Thursday in observance of Lincoln's birthday, but mail service, city offices, banks and stores will remain open for business as usual.

The exception will include closings by the Madison County courthouse at Edwardsville, and Illinois state offices, including the Illinois State Employment Service, the unemployment compensation division and the Drivers' License Examining Bureau. Post offices and other federal offices will be closed on Monday, Feb. 16, in observance of Washington's birthday, one of the holidays advanced by federal law to provide a three-day weekend holiday.

Banks and savings and loan firms also will close Monday, but city offices in Granite City, Venice and Madison, along with retail stores, will remain open.

The courthouse at Edwardsville will close again on Monday with exception of the county clerk's office which will remain open to accept voter registrations only. County Clerk Evelyn Bowles said that arrangement was made because Feb. 16 is the deadline for registering voters for the March 16 primary elections.

Railroad of Lincoln, Casey Jones to be 125 years old

Illinois Central Gulf Railroad, for which Abraham Lincoln and the legendary Casey Jones both worked, will be 125 years old tomorrow.

Colonel Judy's life retold

(12th of a Bicentennial year Press-Record series)

Among the better known early pioneers of this community was Colonel Thomas Judy.

An 1873 historical manuscript notes that "of the early settlers of Illinois, none were more intently known to nor more generally respected than the Judys; and but few have endured privations or hardships to a greater extent than they."

"In the days of their first labors, the state was new, and in fact they were here as heralds of its organization."

"When the ancestors of this generation first ventured to the West, it was indeed a 'howling wilderness'; savages and prowling wild beasts beset the efforts of civilization, which then had scarcely gained a foothold on the Atlantic Coast, much less an affluent and luxurious home in the great and ever-expanding West."

"This work will contain the heretofore unwritten history of many struggles and trials of the pioneers of Madison County, but none that will be fraught with more interest or read with greater avidity than the simple record of the family herein portrayed."

"The Judys have contributed very largely to the development of the county, and in fact they permeate the producing population of many other of our wealthy counties.

"Col. Thomas Judy was the grandson of Jacob Judy, who was a native of Switzerland, and in the year 1777, having his heart filled with the love of adventure, passed down the historic river, Rhine, and emigrated to the United States of America."

"The year preceding his advent, the same love of freedom, evinced by him had prompted the patriotic band of early colonial settlers to declare independence, and pledge their lives and sacred honor to its maintenance."

New dam not harmful, Corps statement says

A new lock and dam at Alton would have no adverse impact on the environment and should be built, the Army Corps of Engineers has advised Cong. Paul Findley, R-20th Dist. "I am glad that the environmental impact statement was so favorable," said Findley, who was given advance information on the Army findings. "Congress now has to appropriate funds for the project so that construction can begin."

Cong. Findley said the Army study "found that benefits resulting from construction of the much-needed replacement would far outweigh any negative impact."

"The report is a significant step toward beginning construction of the new lock and dam," he commented.

Findley said recreation facilities for the 2.5 million residents of the St. Louis metropolitan area would be included and that jobs created by construction would reduce high unemployment rates.

Bell rate increase opposed by state

Gov. Dan Walker has directed the Department of General Services to petition the Illinois Commerce Commission for a rehearing on the Illinois Commerce Commission decision in the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. rate case.

The Department of General Services had opposed any rate increase in the hearings before the commerce commission.

The state is Illinois Bell's biggest customer. Its bill runs about $2 million a month, according to Walter W. Russell, acting director of general services.

Meanwhile, Illinois Bell said the rate increase granted by the Illinois Commerce Commission "falls woefully short" of what the company needs to provide reliable, high-quality service, and said a new petition for rate increases will be filed soon.

Among the changes in rate structure authorized by the commission are:

A 20-cent rate for coin telephones.—This increase ($15.41 million) is authorized only after Illinois Bell has equipped its coin telephones with the "capability of making emergency type calls to operator ('00') or central emergency numbers ('911) without the deposit of any coins whatsoever (Dial Tone First)."

Additionally, Illinois Bell must post bilingual signs with instructions for getting the operator or making an emergency call without depositing any coins.

Directory assistance charge. This charge is estimated to go into effect mid-1977. Under the plan approved by the commission each residential customer is allowed a 20 cent director assistance credit per month plus six calls to directory assistance per month.

In its order the commission allowed Bell an increase in its rate of return from 8.5 to 9.3 per cent. Bell had requested a rate of 9.5 to 10 per cent.

Among the adjustments made in Bell's figures, the commission rejected the "fair value" method of computing rate base and reaffirmed the "original cost" method approved by the commission in the past; disallowed approximately $900,000 in advertising expenses and $250,000 in payments by Illinois Bell to AT&T and lowered Bell's depreciation figure by $5.4 million.

Finally, the commission ordered Illinois Bell to submit, until further notice, monthly reports to determine the revenue effects of the rates granted in General Order No. 59666 issued by the Commission last week.

Clarify Ricco's II incident

Albert Pritchett of Granite City, owner of the C and P Security Service, told the Press-Record Thursday afternoon that the incident reported to authorities as having taken place Jan. 29 actually occurred during Jan. 29-30 actually occurred during the duration of the disaster, according to Brigadier William H. At least 12,800 persons died in the earthquake and the probable death toll will exceed 14,000, it is predicted. More than 30,000 persons were injured and in excess of 200,000 are homeless.

Named to coordinate the Salvation Army's relief activities is Major Harold Hinson of Atlanta. The disaster director on the scene is Brigadier Newton McClements of Kingston, Jamaica.

First reports indicate there is a great need for housing, tents and feeding stations to be manned by Salvation Army workers.

Gifts in kind, such as clothing and bedding, are not being sought in the United States due to the expense of transporting goods to the point of need.

65 YEARS

Maryland, where he remained ten years; came to Illinois in 1787, stopping near Kaskaskia, and from there he came to the territory now comprised in Madison County, in the year 1800.

"Col. Samuel Judy Senior, the father of our subject, was born Aug. 19, 1773.

"He had two sisters, whose family-history cannot be traced in this country. Col. Samuel Judy was elected as a Territorial Representative in the State Legislature, being the first convening for organization.

"The district was termed the Kaskaskia District and included the county of Madison, James Lemmon, of St. Clair, was elected and served during the same term.

"Judy was elected one of the first county commissioners after the organization of Madison County and served the people in that capacity as long as he consented to accept.

"He was united in marriage to Miss Margaret Whitesides, sister to Gen. Whitesides, whose history appears elsewhere in this work.

"Their children were as follows:

"Jacob, who married a daughter of Wm. B. Whitesides, May 16, 1797, was register of the Land Office at Edwardsville, and died May 15, 1850, in Weston, Mo., of which place he had long been a resident. His career was there marked with eminent success, and his death widely deplored.

"Sarah Judy was born Aug. 21, 1800, and married Ambrose Nix; she died Jan. 14, 1852.

"Samuel Judy Junior was born in Sept. 1801 and married Elizabeth, daughter of Stephen Whitesides; they settled in Greene County, Ill., and he died there about 1870.

"Thomas Judy was born Dec. 19, 1804.

"Nancy was first married to Moses Whitesides, son of Wm. B. Whitesides; she next married John Owens.

"Her third husband was Thomas Grant; she is yet living, and enjoying the evening of her days among her children and many friends.

"Katharine died at the age of 17 or 18 years, just entering womanhood.

"Margaret was first married to John McCaughey and next to John Barber; she is now dead.

"Col. Samuel Judy Sr. died Jan. 12, 1838.

"Col. Thomas Judy married Lavisa, daughter of Jacob Snyder, one of the early settlers of Madison County, March 23, 1828.

"Their children all died young excepting Margaret, who was born Feb. 24, 1828; she married James L. McCorkell, and died Feb. 24, 1850, at the age of 22 years, thus leaving none of the offspring of his first wife living.

"Col. Judy contracted a second marriage with Nancy Hays March 22, 1833. She died in 1844.

"He was next married to Mrs. Demaris Barnsbach, widow of George Barnsbach Jr., deceased Jan. 8, 1845.

"She was the daughter of James and Mary Youell, born near Fredericksburg, Va., July 13, 1817, and came with her parents to Macoupin County, Ill., about 1827.

"She remained a widow for six years, thus showing her mature judgment in the selection of a partner for the joys and sorrows of her remaining years.

"Col. Judy's family are as follows, viz.:

"Eliza Ann, who is the wife of James Love; they have two children, John F. and Nancy Jane.

"Sarah Elizabeth, who married J. A. Davis, Oct. 19, 1855, and are residents of Madison County.

"Thomas was born May 15, 1846, and was married to Nancy M., daughter of Robert and Nancy McKee, March 17, 1870; they reside near to Col. T. Judy's; Thomas has had one son, Ivan Loren, born Dec. 14, 1871, and died Feb. 28, 1872.

"William S., born Dec. 29, 1848, and married Rhoda A. Bartlett Feb. 22, 1871; they have one daughter, Mary, born Feb. 14, 1872. He resides near his father, and is a thrifty and successful farmer and stockgrower.

"Mary was born Sept. 24, 1850, and married to Benjamin R. Burroughs Jan. 29, 1873.

"Samuel Judy Jr. was born Oct. 28, 1853, and died Oct. 31, 1853.

"Of all the family, Thomas and William are the only male representatives living; and in a few years the father and all the older members of his family will have passed away, thus leaving to only two male members the transmission of the family name and management of so vast estates.

"Col. Judy lived in the American Bottoms until 1849, where he improved one of the best and most valuable of the many fine farms there.

"These are only a portion of the lands owned by Col. J., the aggregate amounting to over 2,000 acres, and all of it the most productive and valuable in the county.

"Col. J. was called on to represent his county in the legislature in the years 1852 and 1853, which he did with marked ability, being one of those who opposed corruption in high places.

"Although, at the time, he incurred the displeasure of some, yet all have since approved of the bold and honorable course he pursued while there.

"In the rearing and training of valuable and fast horses, Col. Judy has been very successful, and now at his advanced age is unusually fond of a fine horse.

"The class of men of which Col. Judy is so marked a type, are fast passing away.

"At once solid and logical, kind and yet firm, genial but resolute to undertake and accomplish any required labor, in the advancement of the best interests of the county he is ever the best support, and socially he cheers by his constant vivacity.

"The needy are ever welcome, and of his great abundance he withholds not from them that which charity alone bestows.

"In the truest sense, he loves and is noble and good."

On Dean's list

James Napier, son of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Napier of Rosebud, Mo., former residents of Madison, is listed on the Dean's list of the University of Houston at Houston, Tex., according to word received here.

Napier now is in his second semester of his junior year, majoring in biological oceanography, and carries a perfect 4.0 average. He attended elementary schools in Madison and is a graduate of Madison High School.

Inflation

increases in hospital, nursing home and home health agency costs.

"Hospitals, just as other industries and citizens, are faced with the nation's rising inflation: supply costs have gone up, employee wages have gone up, malpractice premiums have gone up, etc.

"In many cases, the malpractice premium increases now being experienced by hospitals would account for the entire seven per cent.

"When the federal or state government fails to reimburse health providers at the comparable cost of operating a facility, this loss of revenue must be passed on and carried by the direct pay patient or to the insured patient through increased health insurance premiums.

"This system is inequitable and counter-productive.

"Through previous legislation and regulations, hospital charges are closely controlled. IHA feels that the very low ceiling proposed in the Medicare changes would do nothing but increase the cost of health care."

Headquartered in Oak Brook, the Illinois Hospital Association is a statewide, nonprofit, voluntary organization. It represents its constituency in the state legislature and acts as a spokesman for its members in their interactions with voluntary and governmental health agencies.

CITES FALL IN MADISON

Jerry F. Strahan has filed a two-count suit, seeking $100,000 in each count, in Madison County Circuit Court against the Terminal Railroad Association of St. Louis. He asserts that on Dec. 20, 1975, while a switchman in the railroad's Madison yards, he was injured upon falling while attempting to board a railroad engine.

Nothing is believed to have been stolen during a break-in at Logan School, 2400 W. 25th St., which was discovered by police at 2:00 p.m. Saturday.

Police patrolling at the school noticed a window in the rear of the gymnasium had been opened. They summoned a custodian who opened the school.

Officers found a broken window in Room 125 where entry was believed gained. Dried blood spots were followed from the window to the boiler room.

It is believed attempts to open the boiler room door were unsuccessful and the trail of blood spots then went to the gymnasium where the open window was found.

An inventory was to be conducted to determine if anything was stolen.

NEW CHEMISTRY MACHINE acquired for St. Elizabeth Hospital by the Hospital Auxiliary is explained by Sister Mary George, laboratory service director, right. The demonstration followed presentation by the auxiliary of the first of two $20,000 checks for purchase of the machine.

Hospital Auxiliary finances new blood analysis machine

The St. Elizabeth Hospital Auxiliary has presented the first of two $20,000 payments to Sister Mary Thomas, president of the hospital, for purchase of a SMA 6-60 Chemistry Machine. The machine, whose purchase was recommended by the hospital's medical staff, will not only save traveling time for patients, it will preclude sending blood samples to St. Louis for analysis.

Of greater importance, it will provide the medical staff with access to a machine for immediate analysis of blood for blood sugar, CO₂, urea nitrogen, chloride, sodium and potassium, hospital officials said.

The SMA 6-60 system is so designed that the hospital laboratory at any time can design the system best suited to its needs at that time. The results can be made available for input into hospital computer systems. If the system is already running, it can produce a six-test profile sample in less than 10 minutes. Results are presented on easy-to-read, precalibrated Serum Chemistry graphs, so that abnormal results can be noted at a glance, it was noted.

The SMA 6-60 purchased by the hospital auxiliary will be operated in tandem with the SMA 12-60 being purchased by St. Elizabeth Hospital. With both systems aspirating from the same blood sample, an 18 (parameter) biochemical profile will be produced in a similar amount of time.

Throughout 1975, as in preceding years, the St. Elizabeth Hospital Auxiliary assisted the hospital and staff in other ways, including the purchase of a $31,500 mammographer for breast cancer scanning, a fetal monitoring system which cost $11,000, $1000 worth of floatation mattresses, a Keeler cryosurgical unit for eye surgery with attachments ($3,200 cost), a lift for the comprehensive floor, in addition to other items of less cost. Their 1975 contributions totaled $76,225. The auxiliary routinely contributes $500 each month to the hospital's indigent fund and annually awards scholarships for use in the health careers field.

Additionally in 1975, the St. Elizabeth Hospital Auxiliary at a cost of $9,000 renovated the hospital's coffee shop. Their members during that period volunteered in excess of 4,800 hours of service in the Coffee and Gift Shop. The operation of the shop, in addition to the handling of TV Rentals and baby photos, provide the revenue for the auxiliary's financial assistance to St. Elizabeth Hospital, auxiliary officials said.

Thompson campaign fund contributions at $400,000

More than 3,150 people have contributed a total of more than $400,000 to Citizens for Jim Thompson for Governor since Thompson announced his Republican candidacy July 1, 1975.

In announcing his regular month-end financial statement, Thompson said that he was pleased that so many people had contributed to the campaign.

"Many people have sacrificed to give and that is most heart warming," Thompson said. "That indicates that people are serious about their government and are serious about participating in the political process. That's a healthy sign."

One man from Rosiclare, Hardin County, sent a letter with his $25 contribution, that said: "I am unemployed and have been since April 1, 1975. I am sending you a small contribution and I hope to be able to send more later. I wanted you to know that me and my family (are) one hundred per cent for you."

Thompson is the only statewide candidate that is disclosing the names, addresses and amounts of contributions on a daily basis. A list of contributors is available for public inspection at Thompson for Governor Headquarters, 110 S. Dearborn St., Chicago.

As of January 31, 3,153 people had contributed a total of $400,228.99 to the Thompson campaign.

Of that amount, 2,457 people contributed $24,939 through tickets that were purchased for the 1975 Jim Thompson for Governor Dinner that was held last Nov. 20 in the Conrad Hilton Hotel, Chicago.

Thompson noted that although his policy of disclosing every dollar every day has caused some people to shy away from contributing, it has also caused others to contribute to a political campaign for the first time.

"Some people have told me that they were giving because of the open policy of listing campaign contributions and making them public," Thompson said.

"If we are going to demand openness and honesty from government, we must first demand it from candidates who are seeking election," Thompson added.

Tom Black on dean's list

Tom Black of Granite City was named to the dean's list at the University of Dubuque for the fall semester.

In all, 179 students were named to the dean's list, where students must maintain a cumulative grade point average of 2.2 on a 4.0 scale, according to John Burkhorn, academic dean.

"These students are leaders in both the academic and extra-curricular aspects of our school and they richly deserve this honor," he said.

The University of Dubuque consists of a four-year college of liberal arts and a three-year theological seminary. Located in Dubuque, Iowa, the University offers over 35 areas of study and eight degree-granting programs.

Illinoisans display Bicentennial patriotism

The Bicentennial spirit has hit Illinois with a colorful array of home decorations that display citizens' pride and enthusiasm in Illinois' Celebration '76.

The once-in-a-lifetime opportunity pops up in red, white and blue decorations on garages, homes and farm fields, including the Quad-City area.

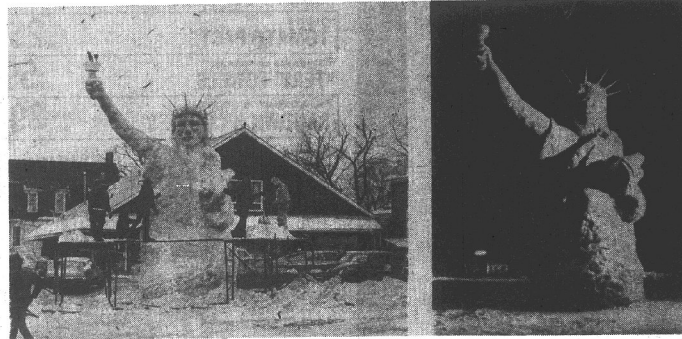

The Stanley Fejdzas family, Chicago, captured the spirit of the Bicentennial on the door of its two-car garage. To the delight of sons Scott, four, and Robert, seven, the door is decorated with cartoon characters celebrating the birth of the nation. How do neighbors react? Said Mrs. Fejdzas, "They love it!"

What came as an unexpected shock has since turned into a source of pride for the Kenneth Beasley family of DeKalb. The family returned from vacation on Flag Day to find the front of its home painted red, white and blue like the Betsy Ross flag.

Mrs. Beasley said her immediate reaction of horror has changed considerably since mail from around the country has encouraged the Beasleys to leave it up for the Bicentennial year.

Son Jonathan, who was supposed to paint the house green, explained that the face of the house was well designed to accommodate the flag known as the Betsy Ross. Mrs. Beasley added that Jonathan is back in the family's good graces and has become something of a hero to his friends.

As a new year tribute to the Bicentennial, a 25-foot snow sculpture of the Statue of Liberty stands on Highway 23 in Sycamore, Ill., where it was sculpted by a light? Says John Strain, on whose father's property she regally stands, "As long as the cold weather holds out."

But in northwestern Illinois, Vern Moens wishes for warmer days in order to fulfill his Bicentennial plans. He hopes to plant 200,000 red, white and blue petunias for what he feels will be the nation's largest flower field.

In honor of the village of Bellwood's designation as an officially recognized Bicentennial community, John Roman painted the American Revolution Bicentennial symbol on his garage door.

The 7x7-foot design incorporates a white star outlined in red, white and blue stripes.

Roman says that the symbol represents the interest and enthusiasm that Bellwood has shown for the Bicentennial.

In an effort to do something a little different, Jack Cummings of Loomis painted his garage door flag blue with white stars, and the sides in alternating stripes of red and white.

A large number "1" appears on the garage door, reflecting what Cummings says he feels about his country.

Jeff Blasingame, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Blasingame of Richmond Avenue, Granite City, was among the first to utilize a garage door painting assignment to create a Bicentennial flag.

Award to Bassett

John R. Bassett, certified life underwriter for the Ohio National Life Insurance Co., has been presented the National Quality Award by the National Association of Life Underwriters and the Life Insurance Agency Management Association.

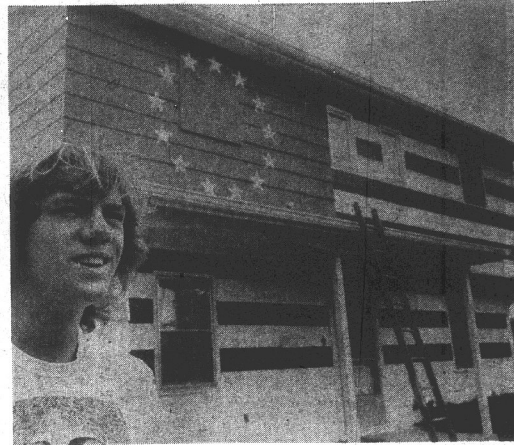

Bradley L. Warnemunde, senior vice-president and director of the NALU, said the award signifies "exceptional quality of service to the agent's clients and the meeting of the highest standards of the life insurance profession."

Bassett owns the Bassett Agency, 1225 Nineteenth St. He has won the award for several consecutive years.

BICENTENNIAL SPIRIT. Jonathan Beasley awaits the return of his vacationing parents in front of their DeKalb home. Talking books for blind at GC Public Library

By JEANETTE KAMPEN
Granite City Public Library
A selection of Talking Books is now available at the Granite City Public Library for the blind and other persons unable to read conventional printed materials because of a physical limitation. Titles of books not in the GCPL collection may be requested. For more information about Talking Books, Quad-Cityans may call the library (878-0600) or pick up some pamphlets.

The redecoration of the library is still in progress and, as a result, there are several changes in the location of materials and equipment.

NEW ITEMS: Two Spanish-language novels of interest: Francisco Garcia Pavon's "El ultimo sabado," a collection of short detective stories, features Plinio, chief of the Municipal Guard of Tomelloso, and Don Lotario, Plinio's own Dr. Watson. Juan Marse's "Si te dicen que cal" is a thinly disguised political novel of the excesses, violence, and human degradation that followed in the aftermath of the Spanish Civil War. This novel won the Premio Novela Mexico.

In "The Complete Home

Medical Guide for Cats" and "The Complete Home Medical Guide for Dogs," Stephen Schneek and Dr. Nigel Norris explain symptoms likely to be exhibited by a sick or injured dog and cat.

By observing the pet's symptoms accurately, the owner can then decide whether the problem is a simple one easily dealt with at home or whether professional treatment is needed.

Lynne Rhodes Mayer and Kenneth E. Vose re-created the story of the Transcontinental Railroad in the pictures and words of the men who were there in "Makin' Tracks."

Another profusely illustrated book is Jerry Robinson's "The Comics." Comic strips from the 1890s to the present day are reproduced — Rosie's Beau, Elia Kett, Secret Agent Corrigan, Little Johnny and Teddy Bear, and many others. For readers who enjoyed Jack Higgins' "The Eagle Has Landed," a new novel by John Lee, "The Ninth Man," will be of interest. Lee tells the story of the German saboteurs — two German four-man sabotage teams that were landed at two isolated beaches in 1942 and were to infiltrate the United States on a mission of death and destruction.

The sabotage teams were quickly captured by the FBI, but only Capt. Andy Blaszk of the White House security staff suspected that the Germans had also landed a single saboteur — "The Ninth Man."

MINIATURE COLONIAL HOUSE was an inter-departmental project at Granite City High School North in honor of the Bicentennial.

Colonial House with authentic details

A miniature Colonial house is an inter-departmental project at Granite City High School North, constructed in honor of the Bicentennial year 1975-76. The house was constructed by Roger Waldrup, vocational education department; the furniture was designed and made by Anthony Belancourt's art classes, and needlework was done by Mrs. Mildred Collins' needlecraft classes.

Details of the house are authentic. This type of architecture was employed during the Colonial period, and such a house might have been found on the eastern seaboard, the participants said. House and furnishings are built to scale.

Furnishings are copied from Colonial designs and might have been constructed by local craftsmen or by the owner himself from woods found on his land, they added.

Needlework is of the types utilized in Colonial times and would have been designed and executed by the housewife herself, employing some yarns spun and dyed and fabrics woven in her own household, the builders noted.

After being on display at the elementary schools, the house will remain on permanent display at North in commemoration of the Bicentennial.

NEW PROGRAM FOR HAIR LOSS

Frank Moran Shows He ReGrew Hair. He Did Not Have Male Pattern Baldness.

MIDWEST/ERICKSON HAIR CONSULTANT WILL EXPLAIN HAIR PROBLEMS AT The Travelodge, 1200 19th St., Granite City, Illinois, Tuesday, February 10, 1976, HOURS 1 P.M. to 8:30 P.M.

Chicago, Ill., February 9, 1976. Mr. A. C. Erickson will be back in Granite City, Illinois again Tuesday, February 10, 1976. Now is the time to act on this great opportunity. Every man and woman now losing hair should take advantage of this FREE CONSULTATION.

GUARANTEED You will be given a written guarantee on a pro-rated basis from the beginning to the end. Naturally we could not give you such a guarantee if it didn't work.

CAN'T HELP Male pattern baldness is the cause of a great majority of cases of baldness and excessive hair loss, for which no method is effective. Midwest-Erickson Hair Specialists cannot help those who are sick bald after years of gradual hair loss. But, if you are not already sick bald, how can you be sure what is actually causing your hair loss? Even if baldness seems to "run in the family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of your hair loss.

Many conditions can cause hair loss. No matter which one is causing your hair loss, if you wait until you are sick bald and your hair roots are dead you beyond help. So, if you still have hair on top of your head, and would like to stop hair loss and grow more hair... now is the time to do something about it before it's too late.

FREE CONSULTATION Just take a few minutes of your time on Tuesday, February 10, 1976, and go to the Travelodge, 1200 19th St. in Granite City, Illinois between 1 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. and ask the Desk Clerk for A. C. Erickson's room number. There is no charge or obligation... all consultations are private, you will not be embarrassed in any way.

Business women assigned convention roles

Hear Council on Aging speaker

Four members of the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club have primary responsibilities for planning different aspects of the 1976 state convention of the Illinois Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs (IFBPW). It was noted last week at an IFBPW state executive meeting in Chicago.

The "Reach for the Stars and Stripes" convention, geared to the Nation's Bicentennial Year, will take place April 22 to April 25 at the Palmer House in Chicago.

Miss Annellen Smith, immediate past president of the local BPW club and convention co-chairman, attended the state meeting at which the convention plans were finalized.

She was accompanied by Catherine Burton, Illinois Federation president, and Mrs. Dana Heinrich, convention chairman, both of Collinsville.

Other Granite City club members holding state convention appointments are Mrs. Lillian Marzall, program book layout supervisor, Mrs. Pauline Weir, convention program lists, and Mrs. Valerie Evenden, state convention publicity chairman.

In addition to local BPW members assigned key roles leading up to the convention, Miss Smith said the Granite City club will host the Friday night "Stars and Stripes Awards Banquet" under the chairmanship of Mrs. Rosemary Baseden, current president of the Granite City BPW Club.

Also accepting primary tasks at the 1976 convention are Granite City Mrs. Lois Wetton, the 1975 Illinois Speak-Off winner, who heads the list of dignitaries at the Individual Development Speak-Off contest on the final day of the conference, and Mrs. Edna Kohlbrecher and Marjorie Lambert, both will take part in the initial ceremonies opening the four-day meeting.

More than 1,200 working women attended the federation's 1975 convention at the Marriott Hotel, Chicago.

Burns Franklin, social coordinator of the Midwest Area Council on Aging, was guest speaker at last week's initial meeting of senior citizens at Sacred Heart Church.

Prior to his retirement, Burns was a physical education teacher and basketball coach at Beaumont High School, St. Louis. He is now working in various programs of the Council on Aging out of their central office in Clayton, Mo.

Drawing from experience gained in his personal life and his present work, Burns cited the continuing need for persons in the senior age group to retain and promote their "innate vitality and their distinct individuality."

A portion of his discussion, followed by a question and answer period, included the importance of timing during the initial stages of organization development.

Father James P. Hill, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, opened and closed the meeting with prayer and briefly addressed those attending.

Mediatrix Dorothy Kowalk, Rose Mary Breyer, Gertrude Barkley, Irene Kadane, and Anna Michels will serve as hostesses at the next planning meeting to be held at Sacred Heart on Feb. 17.

'Engaged Girls' party planned

Welcome Wagon International is arranging an "engaged girls' party" in late April or early May for young women who are planning to be married in the summer and fall months, it was announced this week.

Future brides interested in attending the event, which will feature a fashion show, display by area merchants and free gifts, are invited to contact Mrs. Joanne Achenbach, at 931-3945, for further details and reservations.

Wm. Kessler honored at retirement party

A surprise party was given last week for William Kessler, 2011 Marshall Ave., in honor of his retirement at Granite City Steel.

The event was given in the Kessler home and was arranged by his wife, a daughter Rita Schiber, a daughter-in-law Donna Kessler and a sister-in-law Virginia Kessler. Cake, coffee and punch were served.

Friends and relatives attending were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Kessler and children Latty Ann, Malinda, Karyn, Jodi and Candi; Mr. and Mrs. Monte Kessler and Monte, Greg and Kelly; Mr. and Mrs. James Schiber, and Rocky and Michelle; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Baker; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kessler; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Tusher; Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Croford and Leighann, Brian and Cindy.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Kessler and Kim and Kevin; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Matthews and Jennifer; Leon Stephens and Mark; Mrs. Loretta Vessey and Steve; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Stephens and Danny, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Knight; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Owens; Mr. and Mrs. Willard Pfyfer of Carpenter, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Price and John McKinney.

Eta Chapter plans party

A "Fun Fund" party was planned for Feb. 24 by members of Eta Chapter, Phi Tau Omega Sorority, at a meeting last week at the Granite City Elks Club.

The party will take place in the home of Mrs. Mary Lou Richeson, Mrs. Jo Ervay, Mrs. Willis Greshouse and Miss Mary Hassler were appointed to a committee to assist the hostess.

Mrs. D. Lorraine Butler, president, conducted the business session. Plans also were made to attend the Sorority's Founders Day luncheon March 6 at Trader Vic's in St. Louis, and to sponsor a rummage sale in April.

Hostesses for the March social will be Mrs. Delores Sheridan, Miss Eunice Hatcher, Mrs. Shirley Morgan and Mrs. Georgianna VanBaskirk. Prizes awarded during the social hour were received by Miss Hassler and Mrs. Morgan.

Windo's sing for federal employees

The Windo's choral group from Third Baptist Church presented a program of inspirational and patriotic music Thursday for employees at the Granite City Army Installation.

Earlier last week, the Windo's performed the same program before 200 employees at the Federal Building in St. Louis as part of the National Prayer Breakfast observance.

During their presentation at the local military installation, Army Chaplain Richard Perkins also featured taped messages from President Gerald R. Ford, Secretary of Defense Donald H. Rumsfeld and Secretary of the Army Martin R. Hoffman.

The Windo's sang two compositions by Otis Skillings, "In God We Trust" and "There's Only One Solution," highlighted with patriotic slides being shown simultaneously. Also sung were "Sweet, Sweet Song of Salvation" by Larry Norman and Bill Gaither's "Something Beautiful."

A group of young adults, the Windo's already have engagements into the summer months to present programs of patriotic and sacred music.

Area organizations and churches wishing to hear the Windo's are invited to contact John Nading, minister of music at Third Baptist Church, 29th Street and Grand Avenue.

Mid-week Lenten services planned

Joint mid-week Lenten services will begin on Ash Wednesday, March 3, from 7 until 8 p.m. with the congregations and pastors of the Niedringhaus United Methodist Church, First United Presbyterian Church and St. Peter's United Church of Christ cooperating.

The theme will be "The Sign of the Cross" for the six consecutive Wednesday evening services.

On March 3 and 10, the Lenten services will be held at the Niedringhaus United Methodist Church, 20th Street and Delmar Avenue; March 17 and 24, St. Peter's United Church of Christ, 1001 Cleveland Blvd.; March 31 and April 7, First United Presbyterian Church, 22nd Street and Delmar Avenue.

The pastors of the three churches have issued an open invitation to all persons in the community wishing to attend.

'66 GCHS grads seek classmates

Plans for the 10-year reunion of the 1966 graduating class at Granite City High School are progressing, according to the organizing committee.

The reunion banquet is scheduled June 28 at the Marriott Motor Inn, St. Louis. The 1966 graduating class consisted of 72 students.

The current addresses or whereabouts of several class members is being sought by the planning committee.

Anyone having information about the following graduates is asked to contact Mrs. Chris (Daughter) DuBay, at 877-2311, or Mrs. Linda (Harris) VanHoven, at 876-8854.

STATE CHAMPION GINA GRAHAM with her Elks basketball trophy for free throw shooting proficiency.

Gina ready for hoop shoot regional tourney in Iowa

For a second straight year, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Graham, 318 Myrtle Ave., will represent Granite City in regional competition of the third annual "Hoop shoot" nationwide competition. The Feb. 28 meet will be held in Iowa City, Ia.

Gina Graham, 10, captured the state championship in her age group at Champaign this month by tossing 14 free throws through the net in 25 attempts.

"Her opponents towered over her in height," says her mother, "but Gina 'kept her cool' while the other youths became nervous, causing them to miss many shots."

Last year, Gina's sister, Nita, won in local competition, captured a district meet and then garnered the state title before bowing out in regional competition.

Regional age group winners, who will represent a six-state area, will compete on the national level next month in Kansas City, Mo.

This year's state champion put the same number of shots

Warning on MHS-Cahokia game; other cases decided

Violations of bylaws were alleged in 12 cases — including a Madison-Cahokia game — acted upon by the board of directors of the Illinois High School Association, an IHSA spokesman announced Friday night. The board:

1. Placed Chicago (Simcoe) High School on probation immediately and through the 1976-77 school year; prohibited the school from scheduling any basketball competition outside the Chicago Public League through 1976-77; and found the school to be in breach of contract in its freshman-sophomore game with Peoria (Bergan). In addition, the board instructed the executive secretary to convey to the school and authorities that it deplored the action taken by the Simcoe freshman-sophomore coach in his team's game against Peoria (Bergan).

2. Instructed school officials of both Gorman and Tumins (Egyptian) High Schools to warn members of their school's squads in basketball that should they be involved in allegations on the court again they may be suspended from participation in the sport; instructed school officials at both schools to take steps to prevent recurrence of such situations; and questioned the appearance of the official suspension for removal of school on the court during the contest.

3. Censured Franklin Park (East Leyden) High School and placed a member of the school's varsity squad on probation, mandating immediate suspension for removal of school on the court during the contest.

4. Warned school officials of Madison and Cahokia High Schools that recurrence of similar incidents reported Jan. 6, which resulted in the termination of a basketball game between the two schools, under its natural conclusion could result in more severe penalties by the IHSA board, and instructed both schools to inform members of their school's squads that should they become involved in a fracas on the court their actions may warrant suspension from participation.

In addition, the Board accepted action taken by Madison, barring relatives of a squad member who came out of the stands and who became involved in a fracas — from attending any home contests at Madison for the remainder of the season.

A school completed action taken by the South Seven Conference in resolving incidents which occurred involving Centralia and West Frankfort (Frankfort) High Schools and Centralia and Carbondale (Comm.) High Schools.

6. Accepted a report of action taken by Champaign (Central) High School (barring the parent of a player from attending athletic contests at the school for the year) following an incident between the individual and a floor official after the conclusion of a varsity basketball game.

7. Suspended a member of the basketball squad at Franklin Grove (Franklin Center) High School from all interscholastic athletics for the remainder of the 1975-76 basketball season because of misconduct in a basketball game with Orangeville.

8. Placed Chicago (Wendell Phillips) High School on probation immediately through the 1976-77 school year; prohibited the school from scheduling any basketball competition outside the Chicago Public League through the 1976-77 season; and found the school to be in breach of contract in its varsity game with East Chicago (East Chicago).

In addition, the board instructed the executive secretary to convey to the school authorities that it deplored the action taken by Phillips' varsity coach in his team's game against East Chicago (Washington).

9. Censured Hillsboro High School for unsportsmanlike actions of its varsity wrestling coach and members of the school squad in a dual meet against Vandavia.

10. Censured Roxana High School for actions taken by its wrestling coach in a dual meet against Jerseyville (Jersey) and accepted action taken by the school which withheld a member of the team from participating in wrestling for several matches.

11. Suspended a member of the basketball squad at Galatia High School from participation in athletics until the conclusion of the 1975-76 basketball season; accepted action taken by Galatia (barring an individual from attending basketball games for the remainder of the school year and withholding a student from competition for misconduct during and after a contest) following a series of incidents which occurred during and following a game between Galatia and Golconda (Pope County).

12. Approved action taken by school authorities at Harvey (Thornton) accepted as a member of the school's varsity basketball squad for misconduct in a basketball game against Dolton (Thorndike). When a member school of the Illinois High School Association is placed on probation by the board of directors, that school's entire interscholastic activities program comes under scrutiny.

Executive Secretary Harry Fitzhugh said.

During a period of probation, a school may continue its normal activity program.

However, during the period of probation, if the school were to be found guilty of similar acts, or any other acts which violate the bylaws, more severe penalties may be assessed by the board.

'Y', housing officials offer youth basketball

The Tri-City Area YMCA and the Madison County Housing Authority have joined together to provide a cooperative program serving youngsters in the housing areas of Madison, Venice and Granite City.

"The Youth Basketball Association (YBA) is a program based on values which incorporate basketball skills and games," E. A. Karandjef, president of the "Y," comments.

The "Y" will provide the staffing, recruit the volunteer coaches and managers, provide YBA basketballs and uniforms and secure gymnasiums for the program.

The Housing Authority is providing the funding to initiate the program.

Twelve teams have been organized to date. Two school gyms in Madison and two school gyms in Granite City have been reserved.

The program is limited to children between the ages of seven and 16 living in one of the housing facilities operated by either the Madison County Housing Authority or Granite City Housing Authority.

More information may be obtained by contacting Michael Tharp of the "Y" staff at 876-7200.

Defense by basketball Trojans decisive in win over Steelers

Defense proved decisive for Madison High School's Trojan cagers Friday night as the hosts recovered 45 missed shots off the boards in defeating GCHS North's Steelers 65-47. North High recovered 18 rebounds.

Madison put eight points on the scoreboard early in the opening period of play before the Steelers could get a shot off the basket.

Madison outscored GCHS North 12-2 in that quarter to lead 24-10, and then was ahead 33-25 and 47-32 after the later quarters.

While Madison dominated the first period, GCHS North retaliated in the second period, outscoring the Trojans 15-9 on seven of nine free throws and on four baskets by Rick Spurlock.

Picking up his third foul of the game just before halftime, Spurlock, a 6-11 senior, later went to the bench when the third period was less than two minutes old, having fouled out.

Defensive efforts by Trojan Anthony Canada in guarding Spurlock helped hold the big athlete to 10 points.

The Steelers in the final period forced four straight Trojan turnovers and converted them into baskets. But MHS was able to maintain an edge of about 15 points.

Madison, now with an 18-2 record, scored on 20 of 66 field goals and five of 14 charity tosses.

GCHS North hit 18 of 45 shots from the floor, and 11 of 17 from the foul line.

Madison committed the most fouls, 15-12, and GCHS North had the most turnovers, 21-20. Trojan pointmakers were Ron Jones with 21, Randall Jones 20, Canada eight and Danny Bankhead, four.

Scoring two points each were Joe Gulash, Edwin Garrett, Ron Williams, Keith King and Rodney Davis.

Randall Jones had 18 rebounds and Ron Jones 14.

Spurlock's 10 points paced the Steelers. Rodney Wortham scored eight, Larry Schleicher and Jerry Barnett seven each.

Tom Schocker six, Tim Luehmann five and Brian Smith, four.

Belleville West rallied behind the shooting of Maroon Brent Boyles Saturday night, defeating GCHS North 60-59 at the Granite City Memorial Gymnasium.

West led 15-10, 39-25 and 59-38 at the quarters.

The Belleville squad in the second period hit on seven of 11 shots from the field and 10 of 13 at the foul line. Boyles made six free throws in that quarter and scored a total of 25 points in the game.

GCHS North, hitting Spurlock with passes under the net, shut down West's offense in the final period, allowing the Maroons only seven points on three field goals and a foul shot.

Spurlock pumped in four of North High's eight baskets in the fourth quarter and the Steelers added five foul shots as they made the contest close.

From the field, North High made 23 of 32 attempts and West 25 of 54. West held the edge from the foul line, 16-13.

The Maroons committed the fewest fouls, 20-22, and had the fewest turnovers, 12-28, but trailed on rebound recoveries, 42-35.

Spurlock scored 17 points, Barnett 14, Schocker nine, Luehmann seven, Wortham six, Schleicher four and Gary Paul, two.

The contest evened North High's record at 9-9 and boosted West to 15-5.

MADISON CONQUEST OF NORTH HIGH on the winning squad's court Friday night. Host Trojans pictured are Edwin Garrett (24), Ron Jones (12) and Randall Jones (22), the latter shooting. MHS already had an 18-8 lead in this first-quarter action. North Steelers are Jerry Barnett (44), Rick Spurlock (54) and Tom Schocker (40). Behind Barnett is North's Larry Schleicher (22). Behind Schocker is Madison's Anthony Canada.

Venice quintet cracks up two more victories

The Venice Red Devil basketball team eased through their 15th and 16th consecutive victories during the weekend, defeating Summer High, of St. Louis here 64-51 Friday and then upending St. Paul of Highland there 90-42 on Saturday.

Venice, now with an 18-1 mark after having lost only to East St. Louis Lincoln by one point on Dec. 9, manhandled Summer High for a second time this season, leading 20-11, 30-19 and 52-34 at the quarters before Coach Richard Essington threw his junior varsity players into the final period. Summer lost on Jan. 21, 63-64.

The Red Devils first quarter margin was earned on six points each of Reggie Gardner, James Turner and Jaffee Woolfork. James Fowler provided two points in that period.

Venice edged the visitors from the field, 26-20, and from the foul line, 12-11. Summer committed the most fouls, 19-15.

Only five Red Devils provided the winning score. Woolfork and Gardner had 16 each, Crowder 14, Turner 10 and Larriack Arnold eight.

At Highland Saturday, the Red Devil defense held one St. Paul cager to a double-figure pointmaking, 13, while 11 different Venice players joined in the scoring spree.

Venice led by 25 points from Gardner and 20 from Woolfork, doubled St. Paul's basket making with 40 field goals, and the Red Devils dominated the tossing from the free throw line, 10-2. Both sides had 12 fouls.

Other than Gardner and Woolfork, scoring also for Venice were Turner with 15 points, Ricky Salmond 11, Arnold seven, Crowder five, and Tim Walker, Brian Mathis, Venice Govan, Charles Cotton and Ron Salmond each had two points.

SUUE loses; game tonight at school

The college basketball game between host Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville and Indiana U.-Purdue U.-Indianapolis, originally scheduled for tonight at 6:15 at the St. Louis Arena, has been switched to the Edwardsville Senior High School gym. Tip-off time is 8 o'clock.

But in a preliminary game starting at 6:15, present and former staff members of SUUE's daily student newspaper, the Astle, have challenged the members of the Cougars' varsity soccer team.

With 8:42 left in their game Saturday night at the Illinois State University Field House at Normal, Bloomington, the SUUE basketball team held a three-point lead over the host NCAA division I Red Birds before a stunned home crowd. But as far as Coach Jim Dudley and his cagers are concerned, the eventual 68-59 loss to Illinois State, now 15-5, was just another example of this season's series of unfortunate breaks that have caused a 7-14 record.

Down 34-38 at halftime, the Cougars came out shooting from the hip and on three quick baskets—a 10-footer by Jim Allen, a 17-footer by John Strubberg and a slingshot basket by Pete Catchings—SUUE took its first lead. This completely silenced the 7,000-plus fans who braved wintry weather to view the game.

In that first eight minutes, SUUE dominated the game. Strubberg hit on four of five from the floor to spark the Cougars' rally. But with the score 57-54 in their favor, the Cougars suddenly turned as cold as the weather.

The Red Birds, led by their all-American guard candidate, Roger Powell, regained the lead as they held SUUE shooters to only one field goal in the following eight minutes.

Hog producers meet Thursday

Among the speakers will be Allen Storch, director of NFO's hog division at Corning, Iowa. All pork producers have been invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

STEAL, WRECK CAR

The auto of Ruef Pope, 2171 Orville Ave., stolen before 5:40 p.m. Friday from Granite City, High School North, was later found by Madison County sheriff's deputies. The car had been in an accident and was damaged, deputies reported.

Rebecca Picard, had first round scores of 676, 753 and 660 and then rolled 655, 643 and 611.

Daylight saving time is scheduled to return April 25 but the U. S. Senate may instead order that it start March 7. Whether the House will concur in time also is uncertain.

Lancers sharp, outscore South

For a second time during the 1975-76 basketball season, GCHS South has bowed to the strong Lancers of Belleville East, losing 79-41 Saturday night at Belleville. The Lancers dealt South High's Warriors a 68-54 defeat on Dec. 19.

East came out shooting at the start Saturday and led 20-8, 32-23 and 56-41 at the quarters. The Warriors got their act together in the second period with seven field goals and a free throw to trail by nine points at halftime, but they could not keep pace in the third quarter.

"We played well," said South High's Bryan Wilkinson, "but Belleville dominated with its shooting accuracy from the floor."

East's Lancers shot 60 per cent from the field, 30 of 50, and South High hit 37 per cent, 24 of 64.

At the foul line, East made 19 of 21 and South 13 of 17, both sparkling percentages.

The Lancers' man-to-man game strategy hampered the South offense but failed to contain the Warriors at the boards. South recovered 34 rebounds to the hosts' 27.

South committed the most fouls, 16-14, but had the fewest turnovers, 13-18.

Three Warriors scored in double figures — John Slay 19, Jim Nolan 18 and Rick Fancher 17. Frank Holmes scored four points, Terry Angle two and Mike McKeever one.

The game gave East an 18-2 record and South High a 3-16 mark.

Scout leaders honored at annual dinner here

E. Ray Grisham and Charles E. Taylor, both of Granite City, Leland E. Eckart of Collinsville and Mrs. Jean Wiese of Highland were awarded the Silver Beaver award of the Boy Scouts of America at the 55th annual Recognition Dinner of the Cahokia Mound Scout Council during the weekend in the St. Elizabeth School cafeteria.

The Silver Beaver is the highest award a volunteer scout leader may receive from a local council.

Grisham has been active in scouting at both a unit and council level beginning in 1957 when he was an assistant cubmaster. Since then he has served as an institutional representative for an Explorer Post, executive board member, council finance chairman, council vice-president and is the immediate past president of the Cahokia Mound Council.

Grisham is an active member of the First United Methodist Church, past president of the Breakfast Kiwanis Club, a member of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce and is active in the local United Way. Grisham also has been awarded the District Award of Merit, commonly referred to as the "Scout Oscar."

Taylor has been active on a unit and district level since 1966 when he was a Cub Scout pack committee member. Since that time he has served as a troop committee member, scoutmaster, district vice-chairman and district training chairman.

He earned the Scoutmaster's Key award and the District Award of Merit. Taylor was scoutmaster of the council contingent to the National Boy Scout Jamboree in 1973.

Leland K. Eckart of Collinsville began his adult volunteer work in 1964 and has served as district vice-chairman and district training chairman.

Basketball players seem to get bigger and bigger every year, but did you ever wonder who was the tallest player in history? ... The House of David team once had a player who holds the all-time record. ... His name was "Tiny" Reichert. ... He stood 8-1.

Here's an oddity. ... Every city that won the championship of the National Basketball Association between 1950 and 1955 is no longer in the league! ... Minneapolis won the NBA title in 1956-57, 58-59, 60-61, 61-62, 62-63, 63-64, Rochester won it in 1951 and Syracuse in 1955, and none of these cities are now in the NBA.

Did you know a boxer once won the heavyweight championship of the world while lying on his back? ... How did this happen? ... Well, in 1930, Jack Sharkey and Max Baer fought for the title. ... Sharkey knocked Baer down in the fourth round but his punch was called a foul blow. ... Because of the foul, Sharkey was disqualified and the championship awarded to Baer as he was lying on his back!

Oceanography instruction

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will offer a field course in oceanography on one of the Florida Keys this summer, according to Laurence McAenny, Central States Universities, Inc., representative for SIUE and professor of physics at SIUE.

CSUI is a consortium of colleges and universities in the Midwest organized in 1964 to promote and encourage graduate education and training in the biological sciences, physical sciences, engineering and mathematics. The consortium has offered the course in oceanography for three years through Bowling Green State University in Ohio. It will be offered through SIUE this summer for the first time. "The Midwest is noticeably lacking in oceans," McAenny noted. "The consortium provides access to an ocean environment for students attending its member institutions."

Classroom sessions will take place on Pigeon Key, a 3 1/2-acre island located between the Atlantic Ocean and the Gulf of Mexico. The small island is crossed by the Seven-Mile Bridge, a segment of the scenic Overseas Highway connecting Miami with Key West.

Students will be living at the University of Miami Environmental Field Station on Pigeon Key. Buildings on the island once housed CCC (Civilian Conservation Corps) workers during the 1930s when Flagler built a railroad, stringing the Florida Keys together for the first time.

The overseas highway later replaced the railroad, which had been washed away in places by a hurricane.

The three-week course in oceanography, Earth Science (GEOG 425-6), will begin Aug. 11 and extend through Aug. 26, awarding six quarters-hours of credit to students satisfactorily completing it.

Cost of the course will be $395. The fee includes tuition, books, meals, dormitory and laboratory fees, and travel while on classroom assignment in the Keys. Enrollment is limited. Deadline for registration and a $50 deposit will be April 1.

Students will be expected to furnish their own transportation to and from Florida, and provide their own food while there. Living quarters on Pigeon Key are equipped with kitchens, and groceries can be purchased in Marathon, two miles away.

Instructor for the course will be Halsey Miller, professor of earth sciences and planning at SIUE. He was awarded the Sigma Xi Research Award sponsored by the SIU Foundation in 1971.

According to Miller, students will observe animal life that lives in near-shore environments, reefs, back-reefs, shoreline tidal areas and mangrove swamps. They will also study the geological processes of erosion and sedimentation in these same environments. Field work will be supplemented with lectures, seminars and laboratory work.

During their short stay on Pigeon Key, the students will visit Pennekamp State Park at Key Largo. Pennekamp is the first underwater state park in the nation. The coral reef is just off-shore and totally preserved. The students will be taken by boat out to the reef and will be able to observe the coral from underwater windows in the boat's hull. There also will be other field trips.

Pigeon Key is located in one of the richest areas of living coral in the continental U.S. Reef fishes and reef algae communities offer valuable areas for investigation. The reefs themselves provide unique opportunities for geological studies of calcification processes, Miller said.

Students wishing to enroll do not have to be swimmers, Miller said. Applicants should have a background in biology, geology or related sciences or an interest in oceanography.

Massive welfare fraud prosecutions in state

Illinois Attorney General William J. Scott said last week that "the state's welfare mess has grown to such staggering proportions" that his staff last year prosecuted 6,386 court cases of public aid fraud, overpayment and paternal non-support in which it obtained cash reimbursements and court repayment orders totaling $4,600,000.

"The human misery, the taxpayer burden and the administrative tangle shown by these enormous figures constitute a growing blight on our society," he commented.

Scott said that although the principal public aid problem is in Cook County, where his office last year recovered $3,003,341 in cash and court judgments from 4,273 cases, the 101 Downstate counties also are heavily involved, with $1,624,117 recovered there in 2,093 cases. The attorney general added that the statistics do not include felony criminal fraud cases, which are prosecuted by the county state's attorneys. However, Scott's office obtained court orders for repayment of $354,053 in 230 welfare fraud cases, including 115 misdemeanor criminal cases, which state law authorizes the attorney general to prosecute.

Another 1,729 court-ordered repayments totaled $2,190,776, Scott said. These included reimbursements from estates of deceased welfare recipients, from sums obtained by recipients in lawsuits for personal injuries for which the state had provided care, and from sales of real estate owned by welfare recipients.

"Irresponsible fathers are a big part of this picture," Scott remarked. He said that in 3,907 cases, cash reimbursements paid to the state for paternity and non-support totaled $616,565. Court orders for monthly support payments, extended through Dec. 31, 1975, came to $1,466,004.

She wore a ripple brim hat in ivory, encircled with brown velvet ribbon, ending in a bow and streamers down the back. She carried a colonial bouquet of pastel silk flowers, festooned with ivory ribbons.

The maid of honor was Miss Sandy Verdu. She chose a full-length gown in teal blue chambray.

Immediately following the ceremony, a champagne dinner was served at Charlie's Restaurant.

Among the guests were members of the wedding party and Randy and Karen Miller, Michael Farrell Jr., Mrs. Karen Stockton and Paul Brewer.

Outline expansion of mini-bus service

Handicapped and elderly citizens in Madison County will have further assistance with their transportation problems, beginning in May. Four 12-passenger mini-buses stationed at Edwardsville, Granite City, Madison and Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will provide specialized transportation.

The transportation coordinator of the newly formed Star Shuttle Service, Jeffery Thomas, said the equipment is provided by a capital grant from the Urban Mass Transportation Administration of the Department of Transportation in Washington, D.C.

The grant is being administered by the Illinois Department of Transportation, which is responsible for taking bids and developing specifications for the vehicles.

"The four mini-buses are all that we have presently for the project," Thomas said. He added that money has been promised by the participating communities for maintenance, repair, gasoline and oil.

Thomas said one of the important services of the four buses will be to get senior citizens to senior citizen centers for help and companionship. "But our most important concern is that we help these people get to such necessary places as stores, social service offices and doctors' offices on a regular basis," he said.

"A big advantage in providing these services will be the three buses equipped with hydraulic lifts, Thomas said. This will make transportation available to people confined to wheelchairs and walkers."

According to Thomas, the transportation proposal was written by George Arnold, associate professor of engineering at SIUE; Kay Kendall, president of Senior Citizens Services, Inc. in Edwardsville; Dorothy Bridick, president of Senior Citizens in Madison; and Edgar Padlock, president of the Granite City Council of Senior Citizens, Inc.

They and the groups they represent are still actively involved in promoting the shuttle service.

"But the work is only beginning. I still need a lot of cooperation and a base of operations," Thomas said.

He added that by examining similar shuttle services, he will be able to determine the needs of the program. "I have looked at several other transportation programs in Cleveland, O. and St. Petersburg, Fla. and one in Madison sponsored by the Illinois Economic Opportunity Commission."

"Through assessment of these, it is apparent that for this system to operate efficiently, the buses must, for example, be equipped with two-way radios," he said. "The radios will enable us to keep the driver on the road most of the day."

Persons interested in contributing money or equipment for the shuttle service may contact Thomas at the Senior Citizens Center in Edwardsville, 656-6811.

Railroad

gauge railroad in the South, the first contract between a railway and a telegraph company, the first dining car, the first railroad bridge, first colonization agents to attract settlers, and first crop diversification program for farmers along the right-of-way.

The railroad was only a dream when it chartered was signed by Augustus C. French, governor of Illinois on Feb. 10, 1851.

When the charter line was completed from Dunleith to Cairo, Ill., in 1856, it was the longest railroad in the world. IC was the first land grant railroad.

Much of the land could not be sold for $1.25 an acre until the railroad came. As repayment to the government, the railroad offered reduced rates to the military for men and supplies, more than repaying the value of the land.

The talent and energy for the early railroad engineers were often put to severe test by the harsh tasks of building the line. Manpower and material shortages, diseases and depression, wars and opposition all characterized the early building days, historians recall.

Col. Rowell B. Mason, IC's first chief engineer, directed the work. Iron rails from England were brought in to build the railroad and laborers from Ireland and Norway came to lay ties and rails.

Men used picks, shovels, and wheelbarrows to do the grading. Ox and mule teams with slip scrapers also were pressed into service.

Competition of the charter lines in Illinois did not finish the work of the engineers. By 1860, the IC had crossed the Ohio River and extended 547 miles southward to New Orleans.

The four-mile-long Cairo Bridge completed in 1869 signaled completion of the last link in a direct rail route between the Great Lakes and the Gulf of Mexico. Meanwhile, the GM&O, then the Chicago & Alton, was proud of its claim of being the best sectional rail line in the West.

Abraham Lincoln was associated with the early IC. Aside from his public service—as state representative, as congressman and finally as President of the United States—Lincoln spent more time with the IC than with any other employer.

He was an attorney for the company for eight years, handling as many as 11 cases before the Supreme Court of Illinois for the railroad.

The IC played a role during the Civil War, providing reduced rates for thousands of troops and tons of supplies.

It was common for the railroad to receive orders to move 5,000 to 10,000 troops at a few hours' notice.

As the railroad grew, so did its motive power fleet. Only 11 years after receiving its charter, IC had built two steam locomotives in its own shops at Chicago.

One of the first steamers used by the railroad reached Chicago by sailing vessel in September 1862.

The railroad owned 27 locomotives by 1863, and 473 by 1880.

One of the most famous railroad engineers was Casey Jones. Casey was an IC engineer in the days when every trip on the rails was an adventure.

By age 26, Casey Jones was a full-fledged engineer running fast freight between Jackson, Tenn., and Water Valley, Miss. He is remembered today as the engineer who gave up his life in a train accident to protect his crew and passengers.

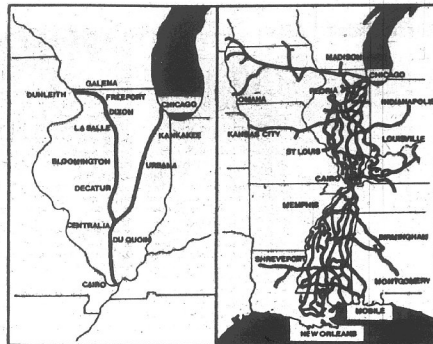

The impact of railroad lines added just before the turn of the century was tremendous. Coal traffic alone nearly quadrupled from 1880 to 1900.

The second 50 years embraced a period of rebuilding and strengthening the lines and acquisition of key connecting lines.

The GM&O grew from a 400-mile line in 1926 to a 2,700-mile major carrier by 1972.

During both world wars, the volume of freight increased rapidly. In 1943 alone, the IC operated 5,861 special oil trains to aid the war effort.

On one day in May 1944, more than 11,680 freight cars moved through IC's freight yard at Memphis.

Today, Illinois Central Gulf operates in 13 states in the heartland of America. It runs from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico and serves 1,200 communities.

In the past four years, ICG has averaged more than 1.8 million carloads of freight annually, totaling more than 600 million tons. The railroad operates 1,650 locomotives and more than 51,000 freight cars. Coal remains the railroad's largest commodity. Lumber and lumber products, grain, and autos and auto parts each make up substantial percentages and ICG's traffic today, ICG is experimenting with many concepts — from coast-to-coast and unit trains to advanced track machines and new kinds of cars.

Long Lake firemen to buy rescue truck

The Long Lake Fire Department is ready to advertise for bids to purchase a new rescue truck, the Long Lake Fire Protection District was told during the trustees' regular meeting Thursday evening in the fire hall at Pontoon Beach.

Final approval has been granted by the Madison County Community Development Office, which is coordinating a $35,700 grant for the department, it was explained.

The money, plus $7,500 offered by Namooki Township from federal revenue sharing funds, provides a total of $43,200 available to purchase and equip the truck.

Harold Davis, president of the fire trustees, said he doubted whether contracts could be awarded and bills received for the truck before the township's fiscal year ends Feb. 28, so that he will contact Namooki Township, requesting the funds be carried over into the next fiscal year budget, now being prepared.

It was reported $13,500 in tax funds has been received from County Treasurer Gretna Musso. Also received was $4,000 from Namooki Township as its final payment of a $10,000 federal revenue sharing grant given to the fire district to have new fire hydrants installed.

The district recently assumed payments for 15 new fire plugs in the district and has invested $9,000 of the money into certificates of deposit at Granite City Trust & Savings Bank, to have available for paying the rental on the fire hydrants.

It is anticipated the district will request two or three more hydrants be installed. Rental is $46.66 per hydrant each year, and the fire officials feel the $10,000 grant should pay the rental for the next 10 to 12 years, even if two or three more hydrants are added.

From the $500 not invested in certificates, the trustees paid $82 to East St. Louis and Interurban Water Co. as the first billing period's payment on some of the hydrants. The others had not been completed by the end of the billing period.

Davis said he has been contacted by the state fire marshal's office and was told five residents living along Route 162 east of the railroad tracks by East 23rd Street have petitioned to be assigned to the Long Lake Fire Protection District. The move is the first step under a new state law which allows residents to request assignment to a fire district, if they are not already in one.

The district's three trustees authorized up to $150 expenses for each to attend the Illinois Association of Fire Protection Districts annual convention March 12 to 14 in Springfield.

Multiple charges

Jim Cagle, 23, of 3807 Kirkpatrick Homes, arrested at his home at 1:45 a.m. Saturday, was charged with resisting arrest. Officers also served five outstanding warrants on him, it was related.

Police said they were responding to a disturbance call at Cagle's home and he answered the door, allegedly giving a false name.

Other people there identified Cagle and officers informed him he was under arrest, the police said, alleging that they were threatened by Cagle and that he resisted attempts to arrest him.

Force had to be used to handcuff him, they said.

Police reported dragging him to the squad car and again used force to get him into the car. In the living room, officers allegedly found a handgun behind the couch which smelled as though it had recently been fired; there was a live bullet in the gun's clip, they said.

Warrants were served on Cagle alleging: failure to appear for a jury trial on a charge of resisting a peace officer; failure to pay a fine on a charge of disturbing the peace; failure to appear for a jury trial on an escape charge; failure to pay a fine on a charge of intoxication; and a warrant alleging consuming alcohol on a public street.

Mrs. Schmidt, 38, found dead

Mrs. Shirley Ann Schmidt, 38, of 2020 Elm St., was found without signs of life in her home at 1:30 a.m. Saturday and was pronounced dead by Madison County Deputy Coroner Edward Werner at 1:45 a.m.

Her son, Michael Scott Singer, who lives with her, said he left home about 7 p.m. Friday and returned with a girlfriend at about 1:30 a.m., finding his mother lying face-down on the kitchen floor without signs of life. An ambulance was called.

Police also were called and found a large quantity of pills on the floor near the body. Singer said his mother had suffered from epilepsy and diabetes. She may have spilt the pills while attempting to get one, authorities speculated.

He said when he left the home, his mother was with a woman visitor he did not know. Werner estimated she had been dead about two or three hours when found.

Nothing in the house had been disturbed and there were no signs of foul play, officers said. An autopsy was conducted and an inquiry is to be scheduled to determine the cause of death.

Mrs. Schmidt was a lifelong resident of Granite City. Her husband, Ollie Schmidt, preceded her in death in October of 1972.

She is survived by her son and a daughter, Miss Tracy Lynn Singer, both at home; three sisters, Mrs. Cora McCullough of Madison, Mrs. Helen Marshall of Granite City and Mrs. Robert (Beverly) Slayton of Union, Mo., and her mother, Mrs. Sylvia Mattison, Union, Mo.

Funeral arrangements may be found in today's obituary column.

USE STOLEN KEY
A house key, missing from the home of Pam Israel, 2800 Dale Ave., since about Jan. 1, was believed used to gain entry to the home and steal a stereo, it was reported at 10:40 a.m. Friday. When the victim returned home, the doors were all locked and there were no signs of forced entry. She said she believes visitors in the house during the holidays took the key.

Indict Venice man on four burglaries

Levell Johnson, 24, of Lee Wright Homes, Venice, has been indicted by a Madison County grand jury on four counts of burglary.

Johnson allegedly entered an auto on a Terminal Railroad Association railroad car in the Madison yards, Aug. 17, 1975. He also is charged with entering three cars on parking lots at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The grand jury alleged he entered the auto of Gary Woolard, Belleville, removing a citizens' band radio, a tape recording and a stereo, and the car of James Lux, Granite City, taking a stereo, both on Jan. 18.

He also allegedly entered the auto of Michael Morton, O'Fallon, Jan. 18, and stole a citizens' band radio.

SIUE security officers alleged seeing Johnson enter Morton's auto and place Morton's radio in a van, owned by Johnson.

Complex air sampling plan

Helicopters and mobile units will begin a five-week program of air sampling throughout the St. Louis region on Feb. 14 as part of the Regional Air Pollution Study (RAPS) being conducted by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

Announcement of plans for the winter field expedition was made by Gene D. Prantner, RAPS field director.

"We do not expect the noise of the helicopters to inconvenience local residents since the flights will be in daylight hours," Prantner said, "but we do want people to be aware that the spiraling operations they may witness are being conducted for a specific and important purpose."

RAPS, a national pilot program being carried out exclusively in the St. Louis region, is considered the most exhaustive research study of air pollution ever conducted.

Helicopter operations will occur from Feb. 14 through March 20 during periods of two and a half hours each morning and afternoon, primarily Monday through Friday, some Saturday flights may be scheduled if weather conditions and afternoons permit.

Nearly all the helicopter flights will consist of spirals conducted over ground air monitoring stations located at 25 sites in Missouri and Illinois within a 30-mile radius of the Gateway Arch.

Air sampling will range from as low as 200 feet up to about 2,500 feet above the ground.

The largest of the helicopters being used will carry almost a ton of sophisticated, automatic high-speed chemical analysis equipment.

Readings taken will determine the amount of sulfur dioxide, nitrogen oxides, hydrocarbons, ozone, carbon monoxide and particles at different heights, even when those pollutants are present in the air in extremely small amounts.

While the large helicopters check pollutant concentrations, a smaller one will conduct spiraling operations at various points throughout the urban area in order to check vertical temperature variations.

Ground level temperature variations will be measured by a van carrying equipment similar to that used in the helicopter.

A truck equipped with lidar, a unit similar to radar but using light beams, will measure the height of the air pollution layer above the urban area.

Through the various forms of highly advanced equipment employed, the regional study measures air pollution both horizontally and vertically.

As a major product of the program, the sampling provides precise data concerning the processes of pollutant transport and dispersion, and pollutant transformation and removal in the atmosphere.

RAPS now is entering its final year of data collection in metropolitan St. Louis, after which the information will be subjected to further research and analysis.

This will result in development of computerized mathematical models which describe air quality in the region under various pollutant and atmospheric conditions.

The models will be used in testing and evaluating alternate pollution control strategies and equipment.

The scientific accuracy and thoroughly structured logic of RAPS will serve as a strong foundation for decisions and actions.

"With firm knowledge making it possible to avoid arbitrary decisions, the ultimate goal is to provide means for attaining clean air without unduly changing present life styles."

Record canal shipments

Shipment of commercial freight through the Charles Rocks locks and canal at Granite City totaled 58,189,032 tons during 1975, a record total shipment for any one year since the Army Corps of Engineering began keeping records on freight movements in 1954. The 1975 shipments were an increase of 1,613,338 tons over the 1974 shipments totaling 57,575,694 tons which represented record total freight movements up to that time.

A report by the Army Corps of Engineers on 1975 movements through the locks here showed 73,748 vessels passed through the locks during the 12-month period, compared with 70,407 vessels moving through the canal in 1974.

The vessels were locked through the canal in 8,826 lockages during the year, compared with 8,696 lockages during 1974.

The year's total shipments were computed after a report on freight movements during December listed 3,671,134 tons of freight shipped through the locks during that month.

December shipments included 1,286,248 tons of freight moving upriver, and 2,372 tons moving downriver.

A total of 5,430 vessels moved through the locks during December in 683 lockages.

Major shipments in December included 243,449 tons of miscellaneous commodities shipped upriver, and 1,899,244 tons of grain shipped downriver.

Collide on Johnson

Two young women were injured when their car and the auto of Alex Lapinski, 2333 Pontoon Road, collided at Johnson Road and Clark Avenue at 2:35 a.m. Sunday.

Elizabeth Gaudreault, 19, of 2333 Paul Drive, the driver of the other car, suffered a cut to her chin. She declined to have X-rays taken and left the hospital.

A passenger in her auto, Susan Womack, 19, of 2330 Iowa St., suffered abrasions to her forehead and the left side of her neck and pain to a shoulder. X-rays were taken and she was admitted.

Explorer program proving successful

The Explorer program is proving successful in this area because the program is meeting many of the needs of young people, according to William Morfay, executive of the Cabrini Mound School Council, who was guest speaker at the Breakfast Kiwanis Club meeting Thursday morning at Charlie's Restaurant.

"Exploring is a program that young men and women of high school and early college age can relate to. Most of our Explorer posts are centered around career interests that the young people have," Morfay said.

"We take school surveys, share them with the school counselors and then try to organize Explorer posts around these interests."

"The 'Impact Breakfast' that will be held here on Feb. 18 that your club and the Evening Kiwanis Club are sponsoring is an effort to expand the Explorer program," he added.

"Frank Mercer and Thomas Hooks have sent letters to 25 business and special interest groups to attend this breakfast and find out just what the Explorer program is all about."

"The names of the groups and firms were not a random selection, but the committee on Exploring studied the interest surveys and picked the 25 top areas and then matched potential sponsors to them before the letters went out."

Morfay was introduced by Kiwanian W. F. "Mick" Strange, program chairman. Kiwanis President Norman Kinder, an active local volunteer scout leader, expressed his appreciation to Morfay for venturing forth in the ice and cold, and pledged the continued support of the Breakfast Kiwanis Club to the programs of the Boy Scouts of America.

million citizens one people—not Cook County versus Downstate, not rich vs. poor, not urban vs. rural, not young vs. old, not black vs. white, but one people.

Declaring that the Walker administration has been one of "broken promise after broken promise," Howlett said, "I will never make a promise to the people I cannot keep. I will not lie. I will not mislead. I will not attempt to manage, manipulate or otherwise 'use' people."

Howlett spoke briefly without a prepared text and spent much time visiting.

During the dinner, he picked up a clarinet and joined in with the band, playing a campaign song. "We're going to vote for Sam and Joe" to the tune of a children's song.

State Senator Sam Vadalabene in introducing Howlett commented about Wolf and Lucco. "These two men know the ropes, and working with Gov. Howlett they can get the job done."

Dr. Michael Bakalis, a candidate for state comptroller, spoke briefly in support of the entire Democratic ticket headed by Howlett.

Dr. Bakalis said that the election of Wolf, Lucco, Howlett and others would "restore confidence and trust, plus governmental accountability, to the voters of Illinois."

Both Wolf and Lucco thanked all for attending the dinner and called for full support of the "Howlett ticket."

Hays Mallory, supervisor of Edwardsville Township, which he said includes all 24 acres of the SIUE campus, acted as master-of-ceremonies.

Speaker of the House William Redmond, who is also county chairman of DuPage County, was introduced along with Christ Costello, vice-chairman of the Madison County Democratic organization, Nick Hamlin, campaign manager for Lucco, Mrs. Jackie Leatherman, chairwoman of the county Democratic organization, and James Chapman, state central committeeman, all of whom were seated at the head table.

determined, but authorities believe it had been a few hours before or less.

A neighbor reported seeing a boy or young man earlier Friday morning with a club. Based on the description given, police took two juveniles who resided in Kirkpatrick Homes into custody for questioning.

A short time later they arrested Strubberg near his home.

The window removed from Mrs. Giffin's door was in the Kirkpatrick Homes in a yard two buildings north of Mrs. Giffin's apartment.

Police said several items missing from Mrs. Giffin's apartment have been recovered.

Investigating officers alleged Mrs. Giffin's purse was located on a roof above Strubberg's home and several small items, believed stolen from her home, were found in Strubberg's residence.

Strubberg was held in the Granite City jail until 4 a.m. Sunday, when he was transferred to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville.

Mrs. Giffin was born in Elwood, Ind., and had resided here since her mid-teens.

She was active in St. John's United Church of Christ, the church's Evening Guild, Moose Chapter 247, Quad-City Navy Mothers number 100, Royal Neighbors Lodge 3771 and the Golden Age Club of Kirkpatrick Homes.

Her husband, Fred, died 22 years ago.

Three state charters issued

The state of Illinois has granted charters to three Quad-City area organizations, Michael J. Howlett, secretary of state, announced Friday.

More stolen motor vehicles being recovered

The auto investigation unit of the Secretary of State's office has shown steady increase in recovery of stolen vehicles in Illinois during the last two years, Secretary Michael J. Howlett said last week.

Approximate value of vehicles recovered has almost doubled in each of the last two years. In 1973, 162 units with an approximate value of $509,567 were recovered.

This figure went to 230 units and $886,489 in value in 1974, and newly released statistics for 1975 show recovery of 324 units and $1,453,817 in value.

Howlett authorized the special auto investigation unit in June 1973. He instigated special training for a selected group of investigators, and experience is believed to have increased the efficiency of the unit.

"Our office cooperates with all law enforcement agencies both in and out of the state in helping recover stolen vehicles as well as in other law enforcement problems," Howlett said.

In addition, the auto investigation unit also handles altered and counterfeit title cases.

Tragic rail crossing crashes continue to plague region

The 12-fatality collision Saturday evening at Beckemeyer between a freight train and camper truck recalls the nine-death train bus crash in Granite City. The current impact in the community or Illinois Route 50 near Carlyle must be devastating, just as the entire Quad-City area felt wounded by the March 20, 1943, tragedy on a now non-existent Nameoki Road crossing near Kirk-park-Home.

In more recent years here, the Maryville Road, West Pontoon Road and Edwardsville Road railroad crossings have proved to be the most hazardous, causing a number of deaths and serious injuries. Unlike the unguarded Beckemeyer crossing, all are equipped with warning signals but such lights often have timing that adds to rather than dispels motorists' confusion.

Encouraging reports on operations of Quad-City firms

Financial reports in late January on two of the major local industries offer considerable encouragement.

Although the A. O. Smith Corp. had a net loss in 1975, mainly due to the sale or discontinuance of four operating units, profits from its continuing businesses were stable. And there have been strong automotive sales, brightening the outlook for the local auto frame plant.

AMSTED Industries, parent of the busy

American Steel Foundries plant in Granite City, approved a two-for-one split of the company's common stock effective Feb. 20. While there has been some decrease in the demand for railroad products, overall earnings are at a high level. There is no debt, and the backlog of orders remains substantial. For the 1976 fiscal year, AMSTED earnings are expected to be below last year's record pace—but substantially above any other prior year.

Fear that original Social Security concept may be lost

Press-Record Washington Bureau—President Gerald Ford's proposal to increase the Social Security tax to 12.3 per cent—an increase of three-tenths of one per cent for both employers and employees—is one way to drive the wedge away from the door of this endangered pension program.

It is not the only way, however, and there are alternate proposals being discussed in Congress which would raise as much money or more to relieve the impending crisis.

The trouble is, these alternate funding schemes would destroy what remains of the original concept of Social Security.

The time is rapidly approaching when Congress must decide whether Social Security is worth saving as a form of retirement insurance or whether it should be allowed to descend further into a thinly-disguised welfare program.

If Congress wants to reject the President's plan, and leave the tax rate at the present 11.7 per cent, it has two choices. It could increase sharply the maximum earnings on which the tax is imposed, or it could plan to save off deficits with money from general tax revenue.

Both of these alternatives would leave only the wispiest connection between what most workers would put into the Social Security system and what they could expect to receive in benefits upon retirement.

It is the penchant of previous Congresses to broaden Social Security coverage and sweeten its benefits that has made the program an actual disaster area.

No amount of tinkering with the way the program is funded is going to save it unless there is a major overhaul in the way benefits are calculated.

Economists and actuaries who have studied the program are coming up with various approaches to reform. But most of them agree that Congress made a fundamental mistake in laying down the present formula for computing benefits, which ties them to increases both in average wage levels and the cost of living. In recent years, this has caused benefits to rise faster than the inflation rate.

Fundamental reform of Social Security will be no easy task, both because of the complexities of such a program and because of the political sensitivity of lowering the expectations of those relying on it for all or most of their retirement income.

By the same token, to treat the problem only by raising payroll taxes—or shifting support to the general fund—invites opposition by young and middle-aged workers who resent the rising burden it places on their earnings.

As it is, the one out of five Americans who earn more than $14,100 a year will see their Social Security tax rise by $70 this year even without new action by Congress.

The maximum earnings taxable at the present rate rise this year to $15,300 and are scheduled to go to $16,500 next January, raising the tax bite by another $70 to $95—with a corresponding increase in the employer share.

With the system not able to stay solvent even at that rate of support, something's got to give.

Prefers flat salaries for board

To the Editor:
Young Daniel Partney should be congratulated for his determined stand to bring about a $5,000 salary base for the members of the Madison County Board.

After viewing the large amounts paid the supervisors, some of whom hold good-paying jobs in industry, it would seem that they would voluntarily all agree to his tax savings measure for the county.

It appears nearly everyone is out to get the most money they can receive at the expense of the taxpayers.

Something should be done to implement his proposal, which is sound, conservative and in the right direction to cut costs. Some of the income for board members is as good as dead money. It is a waste of money. People earn as a living, supporting three or four children.

Is this a fair situation? It seems to reflect an attitude of "let the taxpayers pay and pay."

DOGWOOD RESIDENT

Assails senator on life right issue

To the Editor:
"It's a free country," Senator Birch Bayh was quoted as saying in the Los Angeles Times, "but I hope they hunt the rest of the Senate and other members of Congress, too. That's where the decision was made."

These words Sen. Bayh whispered as he so often does to reporters before his law is picked by Right-to-Life organizations wherever he goes.

Let us analyze his words: "I hope they hunt the rest of the Senate..." Did the rest of the Senate all 100 of them, vote against the Human Life Amendments (HLA)? Certainly not. Only eight Senators on the Bayh Subcommittee voted on the HLA.

On one HLA, four affirmative and four negative votes were cast. Sen. Strom Thurmond voted for every HLA, while Bayh voted against every HLA.

Now the junior senator from Indiana wants all 100 senators, including Thurmond, Buckley, Jensen, and others, to be picked by Right-to-Life senators "haunted" (to use Bayh's words) that is, picked wherever they are making a speech.

Was it this kind of logic that caused Bayh to have his law examination the first time he took it?

Americans do not admire adult crybabies. They despise sycophants.

They abhor carelessness with the truth, exemplified by Bayh's hope that the entire Senate and House be "haunted" (pleated), implying that—like Bayh himself—they are pro-abortion voters.

Bayh gambled that there were more National Organization of Women (NOW) voters than there were Right-to-Life voters. He gambled and lost. Being the crybaby and sore loser that he is, he wants all congressmen to suffer and be punished for his own pro-abortion votes.

RIGHT-TO-LIFE BACKER

Defense head favors informed public

To the Editor:
Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld has issued a memorandum concerning the release of Department of Defense information.

He said that he wants to insure that the American people are informed about national defense matters.

Therefore, "the Department of Defense will conduct its activities in an open manner, with the maximum possible disclosure of information to the public for security and personnel safety."

He added that, "in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act, unclassified information—other than that specifically exempted by the Act—is to be readily accessible to the public."

Secretary Rumsfeld laid down four principles by which the Department of Defense

First, he said that if the information affects the security of the United States or the safety of the personnel of the armed forces it should not be released.

Second, "no information is to be classified solely because of disclosure might result in criticism of the department."

Third, he said that "the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act are to be supported in both letter and spirit."

Fourth, "The department has a responsibility to make available accurate and timely information about plans, budgets and activities so that the public, the press and Congress may understand and understand proposals and programs."

Secretary Rumsfeld finished by saying that the assistant secretary of defense (public affairs) would help him in fulfilling these principles throughout the Department of Defense.

Candidate praised for clean campaign

To the Editor:
Lou Whitsell, Nameoki Township supervisor, is officially a declared candidate for representative of Legislative District 56.

Whitsell, an outstanding supervisor, well known throughout the area for his combined working policy of economy plus efficiency, has found a ready support group of well known, highly respected citizens.

Known for his dynamic personality and drive, Whitsell will prove a quite formidable candidate.

Other candidates for this position including the present appointee, will do well to carefully scrutinize the experienced record of Whitsell and his accomplishments that support the Whitsell candidate.

Whitsell promises, as always, a clean campaign based on principles and issues.

Attitudes, methods of approach, and the quality of accomplishments of concern to the community are factors considered important to Whitsell.

The list of accomplishments by Whitsell as Nameoki Township supervisor not only demands complimentary attention, but commands by its very quality the staunch support of all thinking citizens.

It is our obligation to seriously consider such a rare candidate who thinks of his people first and of himself as a public servant.

We provide our support gratefully and ask that all carefully consider joining with us in the support of Whitsell for state representative.

Opposes mailing of some magazines

To the Editor:
This is an open letter to our City Council members.

In the past few months much has been written and said about cities in St. Clair County banning the sale of certain magazines.

Have any of all of you read these magazines? They can be bought by subscription and brought right to your door by the federal government.

Have any of you talked recently about the divorce rate in the United States to a woman or a marriage counselor?

All of them I have contacted tell me the same thing—the weight of the literature that the young men in our society read and drool over are causing extreme mental and some times physical cruelty.

I would like to see our council members take some kind of action on this subject. I am going to contact our U. S. senators and representatives about this type of smut being delivered by our postal system.

It is about time the American people woke up to the fact that we are not long going to be the leader of nations but the leader of moral decay.

Criticizes use of tranquilizing gun

To the Editor:
It seems to me that there is something wrong somewhere in the administration of the Granite City dog pound.

A tranquilizing gun has and is being used on the pets of the city to capture the animals.

A dog by the name of Jason was shot with this tranquilizing gun, receiving an overdose killing her. Other incidents have occurred before.

The first story told by the dog pound was that they received a call that a dog had striven some garbage. They acted upon the call, using the tranquilizing gun to capture the animal.

After the death of the dog they reported to a neighbor, acting under supervision of the owner, that the dog was wild, resulting in the use of the tranquilizing gun.

But a week before the killing occurred (Jan. 29) Jason was taken to the veterinarian to receive her shots. If the dog was wild, I would presume that the veterinarian would not have returned the dog back to the owner, allowing the dog to be among people.

The employees of the dog pound seem incompetent in the use of the tranquilizers and in the use of the dog.

The weight of the dog should be known, to know the amount of tranquilizer to use, or possibilities of overdose occur.

It seems, after cases of overdose, that someone does not know what they are doing or have the common sense to judge the weight of an animal.

The dog pound also reported that the incident of Jason may be known for sure—have been caused by striking the animal too close the heart.

The aim and precision of using the gun seems to be lacking in the members of the dog pound staff.

The use of the gun in city limits is dangerous in itself. If firing and missing an animal occurs, the dart could ricochet, striking other objects, children or other persons.

If the gun is loaded for a large animal of 60 pounds and is used, misses and hits a small child of less weight, the dosage might be enough to kill the child. Or if a child or person has something medically wrong, the tranquilizer—reacting with another drug, or just the reaction with the medical problem alone—could be fatal.

Training with tranquilizers and gun registration of the person using the weapon, should be required before using the tranquilizers and the gun.

The use of the tranquilizing gun for capturing animals is unnecessary. There are other methods used that could be used here for the capturing of the animals.

I have read other articles of complaint in the paper about the dog pound and it seems that not much action has been taken to read of other complaints; also, remember, readers, it might be your pet next or a member of your family.

Individual retirement opportunities

By VIRGINIA KNAUER
Special Assistant to the President and Director
Office of Consumer Affairs
Department of Health, Education and Welfare

As a result of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, consumers, who are not covered by a pension plan where they worked, can create their own pension plans.

These plans are known as individual retirement accounts (IRAs).

After the law became effective, many insurance companies, banks and other financial institutions began advertising their services and financial plans for consumers who wanted to set up IRAs.

Usually, ads stressed the tax advantage of establishing IRAs before the end of 1975.

Because of publicity given to IRAs and lack of hard information, some consumers who did not have pension coverage may have hastily established an IRA under one advertised plan without taking the time to consider the merits of other plans—or other forms of investment.

Under IRA rules, consumers can take a tax deduction for 15 percent of their earnings up to a maximum of $1,500.

But to take the deduction for the 1975 tax year, they had to establish their personal IRAs on or before Dec. 31, 1975.

On Dec. 15, Internal Revenue Service (IRS) issued a Technical Information Release (TIR) that described the means by which a consumer could get out of an unsatisfactory IRA investment without adverse tax consequences.

In the release, IRS says that if an individual established an IRA before Jan. 1, 1976, and decides to revoke it, he must do so before April 15, 1976 (income tax return deadline).

For tax purposes, his income will be treated as though he had never established an IRA in the first place as long as he has not claimed a tax deduction.

For example, if, having established an IRA in September 1975, he revoked it in March 1976, he is not considered to have established the IRA in September 1975 (and he would not have to pay the otherwise required 10 percent penalty for premature withdrawal of his money).

Moreover, any fees or commissions collected by the financial institution that set up the IRA can be taken as a tax deduction.

Also, a taxpayer who established an IRA in 1975 may change the form of investment of his account before April 15, 1976, without being subject to the normal "one in 3 years" limitation on changes.

IRS will soon publish final regulations on various aspects of IRAs.

It has issued temporary disclosure regulations requiring IRA sponsors to provide information on investments.

Taxpayers may wish to send a copy of the release (TIR-1425) that explains other features of the final regulations as well as the temporary disclosure regulations.

Write to Public Affairs Division, Internal Revenue Service, 1111 Constitution Ave., N.W., Washington, D. C. 20224.

Now that 1976 has just begun, consumers might want to start all over again—at a more leisurely pace—to check the various forms of retirement plans that may be offered.

Then they can take a tax deduction for this year when they file their returns in 1977.
